A2 - Written Mediation 1: Task

Let's celebrate!

Your friend Martina lives in Northern Ireland. She is preparing an oral presentation for her school. She has been to Spain several times with her family on holiday, and she loves our country. She is very interested in Spanish traditions and celebrations, so she has chosen to speak about them. She has sent you an e-mail asking for help: she needs some information about the most typical celebrations and what people in Spain do to keep traditions alive. She knows that some of the things that we do to celebrate festivities in Spain are different from the things people do in Northern Ireland, so she needs your help to get to know them. You write her an e-mail giving her some information about the most popular celebrations in Spain.

Your e-mail to Martina should have between 65 to 80 words. Remember that you have to use paragraphs and follow the structure of an informal e-mail.

In written mediation, you need to understand the texts and the images provided. When you understand all the ideas, try to explain your message in your own words.

Make sure it is clear why you are talking about the topic. Refer to the context. Underline the words and expressions that will help you to understand the text better.
